CONDITIONS OF USE OF IMAGES

1. Bitesize Bootcamp will not use the full names (first name and surname) of any child or adult in a photographic image, on video/dvd, social media, in any of our printed or electronic publications.
2. Bitesize Bootcamp will not include personal email, postal addresses, telephone or fax numbers on any of our printed or electronic publications.
3. If we use photographs of any participant, we will not use the full name of that participant in any accompanying text or caption.
4. We may use pictures of participants and coaches or group photographs or footage with very general labels, such as 'Boxercise Session at Bitesize Bootcamp'.
5. We will only use images of participants who are suitably dressed.

Notes on Use of Images:

If you give permission for an image to be used by the media, then you should be aware that:

- The media may want to use any pictures that they take alongside the relevant story.
- It is possible that a newspaper may republish a story on their website or distribute it more widely to other media organisations.

Parents are not required to comply with the data protection act when taking photographs or making recordings for their own private use.

Parents are permitted to take photographs or make recordings as long as they comply with the following:

- Any images taken are of the parents own child and are intended for family private use only. If there are any other participants within the photograph it is the parents responsibility to seek permission from other participants parent or guardian.
